ASIA - EUROPE STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM GUIDEBOOK

A PROGRAM BY

CSEL UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA

OVERVIEW

BRINGING UP WORLD CLASS UNIVERSITY TO YOUR HOME

Long before COVID-19 forced colleges and universities to go exclusively online with their educational models, virtual exchanges became popular worldwide. Between the growing global population, intercultural use of social media, and increased power of technology, virtual exchanges allow educators to change the way people envision a traditional class room. These innovative, outside-the-box programs were offered to students as yet another option in their course selection. But after the global pandemic, it's clear virtual learning and collaborating may be the new normal permanently.
